

NGSA FALL BASEBALL

Welcome to North Garland 2017 Fall baseball season. We strive to promote fun, develop skills and encourage good sportsmanship through healthy team competition for all participants. This program is designed to give players the opportunity to continue their involvement in baseball activities after the regular season ends. The informal setting is ideal for giving individual instruction to players of all ages.

During Fall baseball there are NO tryouts or drafts, and NO official uniforms (shirt and cap provided). You may register individually or an entire team. There are No Boundaries, everyone is welcome. If you wish to be on a particular team, just notate coaches info in the comments section when registering. We will do our best to accommodate your request.

No Standings, No Official Scorekeeping and No Make-up Games
